Proceeds from the music festival help fund the Center for Social and Economic Justice, which provides workshops using popular education techniques to develop the leadership of low-wage and immigrant workers fighting for justice, equality and sustainability, and teaches them the skills to take collective action for self-determination. We encourage unions, community organizations, foundations and individuals to support the music festival as sponsors at the following levels:

$10,000
REVOLUTIONARY

- Recognition of the contribution along with your union's or organization's name and logo featured in promotional materials, on our festival brochure's sponsorship page, in the event program, in the acknowledgement of our sponsors during the music festival, and by special video appearances or tribute in the event. Two music festival passes are included.

$5,000
LIBERATOR

- Your union's or organization's name and logo featured in promotional materials, on our festival brochure's sponsorship page, in the event program, and announced in the acknowledgement of our sponsors during the festival. Two music festival passes included.

$1,000
FREEDOM FIGHTER

- The name and logo of your union or organization will be displayed in promotional materials, listed in the program and announced in the acknowledgement of our sponsors during the music festival. Music festival pass included.

$500 – Agitator
$250 – Striker
$100 - Uniter

- Included in the program and in the acknowledgement of our sponsors during the music festival, with a festival pass included.
